Clarification of News Report

We write in response to your request for clarification on the news article entitled "Uy's Dito CME going into digital space, nixes broadcast" posted in Philstar.com on 12 March 2020. The article reported in part that:

"MANILA, Philippines — After being rumored as a possible buyer of ABS-CBN, businessman Dennis Uy's media and entertainment expansion is apparently not going into the direction of broadcast for now.

Newly appointed Dito CME Holdings chief operating officer Donald Lim, who is a former ABS-CBN executive, said the group has its sights set on the digital space.

'We're going to the digital space. Any content that we will pursue will be solely digital. One hundred percent digital. I won't touch broadcast, I won't touch anything else,' Lim told The STAR.

Lim, who is tasked to lead Uy's investments in the space of media and entertainment, said more concrete plans would be unveiled soon.

We confirm the statements made by Mr. Donald Lim, Chief Operating Officer of ISM Communications Corporation (the "Company"). However, we wish to clarify his statements that the Company does not have any current plans to engage in the broadcast business. If there are any changes in plans in the future, the Company will make the appropriate disclosure.
