Clarification of News Report

We write in connection with the request for clarification pertaining to the news article entitled "DITO to launch commercially on March 8 starting with Davao, Cebu" posted in abs-cbnnews.com on February 23, 2021. The article reported in part that:

"MANILA - DITO Telecommunity said Tuesday it would launch commercially on March 8 starting in Davao and Cebu, its chief technology officer Adel Tamano said.

The first phase of the launch will be in Mindanao, a 'sentimental' decision to honor the company's origin, Tamano said during a virtual press conference. The telco was initially called Mislattel or Mindanao Islamic Telephone before being renamed as DITO.

By March 8, 17 cities and municipalities in Mindanao and Visayas will have DITO telco services, Tamano said.

'We want the public to know that on March 8 the year, we will be having our commercial launch. Phased launch. First in Mindanao,' Tamano said.

'Initial commercial rollout in Mindanao and Visayas. Within the year, we will be offering our services as well in NCR,' he added.

Tamano said will be 10 to 20 points of sale in Visayas and Mindanao as well as online by March 8."

Based on information relayed to us by Dito Telecommunity Corp., we wish to confirm all statements in the news article. As mentioned in the article, Dito Telecommunity is planning its commercial launch by March 8, 2021 in 17 cities and nearby municipalities in Mindanao and Visayas. Dito Telecommunity Corp. is also planning to offer its services in NCR within the year.
